A MORE POWERFUL ENEMY

The world at large has been opposed to God's will since creation. In the days of the patriarchs, people rebelled against God. In the Mosaic age, folk fought against God's law. When Christ walked the earth, most people around Him were His enemies.

Today, in the age of the Lord's church, the same rule applies, except to a greater degree. The world is a greater enemy of the child of God than ever before. It has power over Christians because of its favors, riches, honors, rewards and stronger methods of tempting than ever before. It is a more dangerous enemy because it has lost its appearance of being an enemy, posing as an angel of light. Therefore, people do not fear it, and instead give themselves over to be ruled by it. The power wielded by Satan in today's world has greater impact than the fire and fury of persecutions in New Testament days. Peter, in 1 Peter 5:8 describes the dilemma as Satan being a roaring lion seeking someone to devour.

Temptation is not getting less. Wickedness is not getting less, but is growing and getting more powerful every day.
