God's Grace

"And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8).

Two things we need to learn. First, God's servants are totally dependent upon the grace of God. God's grace or favor provides far more than forgiveness. God shapes and molds us into the kind of people that He wishes us to be.

In Philippians 1:6 Paul wrote, "And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ." Yes, God expects us to use the talents and abilities He gives us, but we should never forget that every good gift comes from Him (James 1:17). Paul urges us, "Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure." (Philippians 2:12-13).

Second, we are wholly dependent upon the kindness of God to provide for our needs and the needs of this ministry. God does not send us into His vineyard empty-handed and ill-equipped. God's grace abounds so that we have all sufficiency in all things at all times for every good deed. When faithful Christians ask, God answers; when they seek, He helps them find; and when they knock, the Lord opens the door. God truly answers prayer (Matthew 7:7-9).

*It's easy enough to be pleasant,
When life goes on like a song,
But the man worthwhile,
Is the one who can smile,
When everything goes dead wrong.
For the test of the heart is trouble,
And it always comes with the years,
But the smile that is worth
The treasures of earth,
Is the smile that smiles through tears.*

Some T.N.T.

A minister recently had a number of books to be rebound, among them was a copy of the New Testament. He was surprised, upon return of the books, to find on the back ridge of the New Testament, a label in gilt letters, "T.N.T.". This was done because there was no room to spell out "The New Testament", so the book binder simply inscribed the initials T.N.T.

Not a bad name for the New Testament--It is spiritual dynamite!

Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you."

The Commandments: With My Whole Heart

When the Jewish leaders asked Jesus which of the commandments of God was the greatest one, it was of real concern to them (Matt. 22:34-40). The Jews had carefully gone through the Old Testament and identified 613 distinct commands God had given to them. They had divided them into positive and negative lists. There were 365 times when God had given a negative (thou shall not) and 248 positive commands.

The answer Jesus gave to them was taken from one of the Ten Commandments but two commands on which the entire law and prophets were based. The first and greatest thing God had ever said was, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind."

How much of you is given to God?

The question is, "How does one do this?" Perhaps the answer lies in the words of David, whose heart was like the heart of God. By looking at how this godly man talked about using his "whole heart," we can have a deeper understanding of the practical application of the greatest commandment God ever gave. Below is a discussion of the nine times David spoke about using his "whole heart" in Psalms.

David praised the Lord with his whole heart. Three times in Psalms David said, "I will praise You...with my whole heart" (Psa. 9:1; 111:1; 138:1). One cannot love the Lord with all of his heart unless He uses his entire heart in praising God. God has no delight in worship that is half-hearted.

David prayed to God with his whole heart. "I entreat Your favor with my whole heart" (Psalm 119:58). He also said, "I cry out with my whole heart; hear me, O Lord" (Psa. 119:145). There is a great difference in just saying the words of memorized prayer and praying to God fervently (Jas. 5:16).

David read the Bible and followed it with his whole heart. Hear his words. "Blessed are those who keep His testimonies, who seek Him with the whole heart" (Psa. 119:2). "With my whole heart I have sought You; Oh, let me not wander from Your commandments" (Psa. 119:10). "Give me understanding, and I shall keep Your law; indeed, I shall observe it with my whole heart" (Psa. 119:34). "The proud have forged a lie against me, but I will keep Your precepts" (Psa. 119:69). David longed to obey God.

Do you want to have a heart like the heart of God? Then let these words from David's heart become the words of your heart. Serving God involves praising and praying to God with all our heart, but it involves more than that. It involves diligent study of His word, deep devotion to knowing His word and wholehearted service in obeying the Lord.

Matthew 22:37-38 Jesus replied: "38 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' 38 This is the first and greatest commandment.

One final question. Are you keeping the greatest commandment like David did?
