Our worship.

"God is a Spirit, and they who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth." John 4:24

With this in mind, our worship is simple and warm, according to the pattern revealed by God in the New Testament. We commune rewardingly with the Father, and edify one another as we participate actively in each expression of worship: Prayers are led by men of the congregation, offered as their heartfelt expression to God; congregational, a cappella singing furnishes praise to God and loving encouragement to others; observance of the Lord's Supper every Sunday provides communion with the crucified and resurrected Savior; teaching from God's Word is given a prominent place in each worship assembly, with an emphasis on its relevance today as we seek to be Christians.

Matthew 6:33

But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

Sure Signs

When the way to the meeting house seems too far,

When the sermon seems too long;

When the singing comes hard and is dreary;

When you find so much to dislike in your brethren;

When the preacher makes you mad!

When you are frequently offended by the things members say;

When reading of the Bible is too dull for you and makes you sleepy;

When prayer is a burden,

When it frets you to be called on to give;

When you feel there is no use of trying to save the lost about you;

When there is no gladness or satisfaction at the mention of God or Christ;

When you make excuses for your sin, and when folks try to persuade themselves that

God will not judge or punish;

These are the signs of drifting, backsliding and that we are not right with God!

Every word of God is flawless; He is a shield to those who take refuge in Him.

Food for the Soul

Many find the teachings of God's word distasteful. Unwilling to bring their lives into conformity with the will of God, they reject His word and follow after their own desires. The apostle Paul warned of such in 2 Timothy 4:3-4 where he writes: "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will turn away their ears from the truth, and will turn aside to myths." Could these words accurately describe modern society?

Jesus said, "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" (Mt. 4:4). We must live by God's word or we will die unprepared to face judgment (Jn. 12:48). Negus Menelik, ruler of Ethiopia from 1844 to 1913, misunderstood the meaning these words of Jesus. Taking it literally, Menelik ate two pages a day, believing it gave him special powers. But, when he got to the books of 1 and 2 Kings and a section of colored illustrations, the poison in the ink killed him.

Jesus spoke of spiritual rather than physical matters when he referred to living by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God. Christians should resemble "newborn babes" and "long for the pure milk of the word" (1 Pet. 2:2). In this sense, the word does have special powers in that it provides the "wisdom that leads to salvation through faith in Christ" (2 Tim. 3:15). But this word must be taken into the heart rather than the stomach. Only then, will it produce faith and lead to salvation.

God's word can only produce its desired result when we accept it by faith and put it into practice in our daily lives. Paul exhorts us to let Christ's word dwell richly within our hearts (Col. 3:16). Isn't it about time that we appreciate God's word for what it really is—food for the soul?

²² Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. ²³ Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror ²⁴ and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. ²⁵ But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

James 1:22-25
