Jesus is the way

Jesus gives life in abundance. All seek satisfaction, yet some are confused in thinking an affluent life is equivalent to abundant living. Jesus said, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). He is the way to have inexpressible joy, a condition much deeper and more permanent than happiness. Happiness to many depends on circumstances, yet Christ brings joy even in the midst of the most adverse circumstances. Jesus is the way up. He enables us to reach greater potential. We're made to love, worship, and serve the Lord. Someone once said, "If you would find the best potatoes, go to Idaho; the best onions, go to Michigan; the best apples, go to Washington; the best peaches, go to Georgia; the best sailors, go to Annapolis; the best soldiers, go to West Point; but to find the best being, you must go to Jesus." He alone will lift you up to heights never imagined before. Jesus is the way to heaven. If you sought a guide to a location you had never visited before, you would not choose a guide who had never visited your desired destination, but you would seek one who knew the way. Jesus left the splendors of being with the Father.

Poem correlating to Colossians 3:16-17

May the word of Jesus Christ
Make its home in your hearts
And dwell in all its richness,
Permeating every part

So you may have His wisdom
In teaching one another
What you have learned from Him,
Shared with sisters and brothers

And we will sing a new song
When His Holy Spirit comes in,
Making melody in our hearts
With spiritual songs and hymns

And whatever you may do
In word, thought or deed,
Do everything in the name of Jesus,
Giving praise unto thee.

Colossians 3:16-17 King James Version (KJV)

<sup>16</sup> Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.<sup>17</sup> And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

A Simple G-O-S-P-E-L

For some people, the thought of teaching someone else the gospel is fearful and even paralyzing. First of all, how do I get someone to agree to let me talk to them about the gospel, and then, if they agree, what do I even say? While teaching the gospel is certainly a task to be taken seriously and with proper readiness, it is something that every single Christian has both the ability and the knowledge to do. With prayer and trust in the Father above, a healthy level of confidence can be added to one's ability and knowledge to fulfill this exciting and rewarding responsibility of God's children. So, what is an easy way to teach someone the G-O-S-P-E-L? Well, if I can remember how to spell G-O-S-P-E-L, then I have a simple way to tell someone the greatest news on earth. Let's teach together.

G—Goodness of God. It is possible for anyone to “see that the Lord is good” (Psa. 34:8), for “the earth is full of [His] goodness” (33:5). He “made the world and everything in it,” and “He gives to all life, breath, and all things...for in Him we live and move and have our being” (Acts 17:24-28). His goodness is seen in “His indescribable gift” (2 Cor. 9:15)!

O—Openness to All. The greatness of God's love for “the world” is seen in that Jesus “died for all” (2 Cor. 5:14; Heb. 2:9). “Without partiality” (1 Pet. 1:17), God “desires all men to be saved” (1 Tim. 2:4), and thus He calls “all” to Himself through the gospel (Mark 16:15; Matt. 11:28).

S—Salvation Through Christ. Complete forgiveness of sins comes through (and only through) the death of Jesus on the cross (Gal. 1:4) and the shedding of His blood for us (Heb. 9:22; Rev. 1:5). By His authority (Matt. 28:18), His Word tells us exactly how to be saved from sin (Jas. 1:21; John 8:32).

P—Place of the Church. It is important for everyone to know that the Lord has situated His church as an essential part of His plan (Eph. 3:10-11) and of our salvation (Acts 2:38-47). One cannot be saved outside of His church (Eph. 5:23) nor be delivered to heaven outside of it (1 Cor. 15:24).

E—Expectations of God. The grace of God is extended to those who, “through faith” in Christ (Eph. 2:8), “obey Him” (Heb. 5:9) and “do the will” of the Father in heaven (Matt. 7:21). The one who “repents” and “is baptized” is “saved” from sin (Acts 2:38; Mark 16:16).

L—Love's Response to God. When one finds out about God, about Jesus, about what they have done for us and about what they expect of us, the “love” filled response is one that will “keep His commandments” (1 John 5:3; John 14:15), without personal hesitation, suspicion or alteration. The gospel is not about “have-to's” but about “get-to's”!

Matthew 28:19

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit,
