A Perfect Christian

*You could count on a perfect Christian to always be gentle and humble,
To be immune to sin, and never, ever stumble.*

*He'd study and remember all of God's commands;
He'd be trustworthy, moral and honest, you'd know just where he stands.*

*With others, she'd be in harmony; she'd never lose her cool;
Forgiving and forgetting, following the Golden Rule.*

*He'd surrender his life to God, full of joy and peace,
Free of stress and worry...Perfect, pure release.*

*She'd lift up everyone, full of sweet compassion,
Free of worldly wants, ignoring worldly fashion*

But we can't ever be perfect, so we always need to pray

The Olden Paths

The olden paths are the golden paths,
That lead to God's white throne,
The narrow way is the only way,
To safely guide me home.
God's word is the light to lead me aright,
No other lamp I need;
If my path is dim, I'll cling to him,
And his counsel humbly heed.
I know he is just, and with faith and trust,
I will hold his loving hand;
I can have no fear, for he is ever near,
And will lead to that Godly land.
He will ever be my friend to the journey's end,
Where I'll lay my troubles down,
Oh, the thought is sweet of the joy compete,
When my head shall wear a crown.

The Enemy's Perfect Plan

Author Unknown

Let's not allow the enemy to distract us...

Satan called a worldwide convention. In his opening address to his evil angels, he said, "We can't keep Christians from going to church. We can't keep them from reading their Bibles and knowing the truth. We can't even keep them from conservative values. But we can do something else. We can keep them from forming an intimate, abiding relationship experience in Christ. If they gain that connection with Jesus, our power over them is broken. So let them go to church, let them have their conservative lifestyles, but steal their time, so they can't gain that experience in Jesus Christ. This is what I want you to do, angels. Distract them from gaining hold of their Savior and maintaining that vital connection throughout their day!"

"How shall we do this?" shouted his angels.

"Keep them busy in the nonessentials of life and invent unnumbered schemes to occupy their minds" he answered. "Tempt them to spend, spend, spend then borrow, borrow, borrow. Convince the wives to go to work for long hours and the husbands to work six or seven days a week, ten to twelve hours a day so they can afford their lifestyles. Keep them from spending time with their children. As their family fragments, soon their homes will offer no escape from the pressures of work."

Fill their coffee tables with magazines and newspapers. Pound their minds with news 24 hours a day. Invade their driving moments with billboards. Flood their mailboxes with junk mail, sweepstakes, mail order catalogues, and every kind of newsletter and promotional offering, free products, services and false hopes."

"Even in their recreation, let them be excessive. Have them return from their recreation exhausted, disquieted, and unprepared for the coming week. Don't let them go out in nature to reflect on God's wonders. Send them to amusement parks, sporting events, concerts and movies instead. And when they meet for spiritual fellowship, involve them in gossip and small talk so that they leave with troubled consciences and unsettled emotion."

"Let them be involved in soul-winning. But crowd their lives with so many good causes they have no time to seek power from Christ. Soon they will be working in their own strength, sacrificing their health and family unity for the good of the cause."

It was quite a convention in the end. And the evil angels went eagerly to their assignments causing Christians everywhere to get busy, busy, busy and rush here and there.

Has the devil been successful at his schemes? You be the judge.
