A Few Words to Live By

Philippians 4:4-9

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. ⁹ Whatever you have learned or received or heard from me, or seen in me—put it into practice. And the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:19

And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus.

1 Corinthians 10:13

No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

Mathew 6:33 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

For One Indulgent Moment

What some will pay for a moment's reckless folly is recorded again and again in the Book of Ages. Do you think these people got their "money's worth?"

1. Adam and Eve, for one bit of luscious fruit when they were not even hungry, brought sin, suffering, shame, and death upon themselves and the human race (Genesis 3).
2. Lot's wife, revealing her longing for the things that pertain to earth, took one look back at Sodom and became a pillar of salt (Genesis 19).
3. Esau, to satisfy one day's fleshly appetite, lightly esteemed his birthright and forfeited his right to the ancestry of Christ (Genesis 25).
4. Achan, for a garment he could not wear, and silver and gold he could not spend, paid with all his possessions, his family, and his life (Joshua 7).
5. Samson, for the caress of a hypocritical woman, lost his eyes, and finally his life (Judges 16).
6. David, to enjoy another man's wife, hands to posterity a tale of his life with adultery, shame, and tears, boldly written for all to read (2 Samuel 11).
7. Ahab, coveting another's little vineyard, permitted his wife to have its owner killed, claimed it for his own, and heard his own funeral preached in these words, "In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth, shall the dogs lick thy blood, even thine" (I Kings 21)

Joy and Laughter in Christ

Joy and laughter in Christ; recently we attended the Tahoe Family Encampment. We took our three grandchildren with us and they had a great time. They played and laughed all week. It made me think about how laughter affects our body. Have you ever started laughing and couldn't stop. What is it in our bodies that we have to get out before we can stop? Like crying, we cry until something happens, then we stop. We laugh until something happens then we stop. It is always easier to stop laughing than it is to stop crying, for some reason. Did you know that when laughing, we can use up to 43 muscles in our bodies? We use nerves to trigger muscles that make our face create a smile. So God created us with the ability to laugh. And since God made us in His image, Genesis 1:26-27, "Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the sky and over the cattle and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female, He created them. If God created us in His image, then God must laugh also. Psalm 37:12-13 shows us that God laughs. The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;¹³ but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming. And Psalm 59:7-8 "See what they spew from their mouths— the words from their lips are sharp as swords, and they think, "Who can hear us?"⁸ But you laugh at them, Lord; you scoff at all those nations."

God laughs and He gave us the ability to laugh, and God wants us to laugh. Job 8:21 says, "He will yet fill your mouth with laughter, and your lips with shouting." In this chapter, Job's friends have come to comfort him after some significant losses. This verse is Job's friend Bildad reminding him that God is with us even at our lowest points, and that He will restore our joy in the end. "Psalm 126: 2 "Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, "The Lord has done great things for them. Proverbs 17:22 wisely states, "A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones." Just goes to show you, that old saying, "laughter is good medicine," goes back to ancient times.

King Solomon wrote in Ecclesiastes 3:4 that in life, there is "a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance." So when it's time to laugh, laugh! And know God is laughing with you. "

We know God has Brought Laughter..." When Sarah overheard God tell Abraham that she would bear them a son, she laughed. Her laugh was one of disbelief, but when her son was born, she named him Isaac, which means "he laughs," and said in Genesis 18:12 "God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me."

God wants us to laugh and be joyful He designed us to laugh and be joyful in Him.

Philippians 4:4

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!
