Welcome to the Church of Christ

1 Timothy 4:4-16⁴ For everything God created is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving,⁵ because it is consecrated by the word of God and prayer.⁶ If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters,^[a] you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.⁷ Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly.⁸ For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.⁹ This is a trustworthy saying that deserves full acceptance.¹⁰ That is why we labor and strive, because we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all people, and especially of those who believe.¹¹ Command and teach these things.¹² Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity.¹³ Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching.¹⁴ Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you.¹⁵ Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress.¹⁶ Watch your life and doctrine closely. Persevere in them, because if you do, you will save both yourself and your hearers.

Birthday Fellowship:

The November birthday fellowship will be held tonight following evening services. Our hosts are Craig and Donna Case. It is a potluck and Craig said to bring good food!

Valley Christian Home:

Lemoore will be in charge of the services at Valley Christian Home today. Services begin at 2:30 and Brandon Hodgson will be speaking.

Box for Jordan:

Today is collection day for Jordan. Also – as the holiday approaches, we have placed a baggie of mailing labels on the bulletin board in the foyer. If you wish to send Jordan a card – feel free to take a label.

Thanksgiving at YBC:

There is a proposed menu and sign up for the weekend on the back-bulletin board. There will be a workday in the nurse's cabin on Friday. For information on the work day – please see Gary Cole. See Gary or Denise to sign up for the weekend.

FYBC Breakfast and Boutique:

The local chapter of FYBC will hold a breakfast and boutique at the HANFORD Applebee's on Saturday Dec. 8th from 8-10. Breakfast includes eggs, sausage, potatoes, pancakes, orange juice and coffee. There is a boutique sign up list so we can plan for the space needed that morning. Also – we will need about 12 people to help with serving and seating people. If you would be willing to help in this area – there is a sign up for that as well.

If men would cease to worry,
And women cease to sigh,
And all be glad to bury,
Whatever has to die;
If neighbor spoke of neighbor,
As love demands of all,
The rust would eat the saber,
The spear stay on the wall;
Then every day would glisten,
And every eye would shine,
And God would pause to listen,
And Life would be divine.

We Give Thanks

We give thanks to you, O Lord,
For what you've blessed us with
The abundance of the blessings
From heaven that you give

For we have all received from you
The abundance from your hand
In many varied and different ways,
You've blessed us in this land

We only need to look around
At what you, Lord, have given,
To see the many blessings we have
And see your full provision

So, Lord, to you we give our thanks
With full and grateful hearts,
The blessing of family, friends and love
And just for who you are.

Be Thankful

When I turned on my computer to do the bulletin, this story came up. It hit home for me, I thought I would share it with you for some encouragement.

Two old friends met each other on the street one day. One looked forlorn, almost on the verge of tears. His friend asked, "What has the world done to you, my old friend?"

The sad fellow said, "Let me tell you: three weeks ago, my uncle died and left me forty thousand dollars."

"That's a lot of money."

"But you see, two weeks ago, a cousin I never even knew died, and left me eighty-five thousand dollars, free and clear."

"Sounds to me that you've been very blessed."

"You don't understand!" he interrupted. "Last week my great-aunt passed away. I inherited almost a quarter of a million from her."

Now the man's friend was really confused. "Then, why do you look so glum?"

"This week . . . nothing!"

That's a problem with receiving something on a regular basis. Even if it is a gift, we eventually come to expect it. The natural tendency is that if we receive a gift long enough, we come to view it almost as an entitlement. We feel hurt, even angry, if we don't receive it any longer.

It is the same way with the blessings God gives us every day. I don't deserve my comfortable home that I live in, the beautiful scenery around me, the clean water I drink. But after receiving these gifts (and a multitude of others) for years, I sometimes fail to be grateful. I've come to expect these good things. And when one of them is removed for a short time (like water or electricity or internet going down), I get upset.

Let's make an effort today to recognize the blessing we've come to take for granted. Focus on what we have rather than on what we don't have, and see if it doesn't improve our attitudes.

Philippians 4:12 I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want.

1Chronicles 16:34 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his love endures forever.
