Fathers.....a reflection of God

All of us are familiar with the word FAX (facsimile) meaning the replication of a thing. Wonderful technology that's used all the time in our culture. But have you ever thought that FATHERS are to be a facsimile of God? Let me explain. What God does for us, we fathers are to do for our children.

Care and Compassion. "As a father pities his children, so the Lord pities those who fear him" (KJV) Psalm 103:13.

Generosity. "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him?" (KJV) Matthew 7:11.

Instruction, correction and discipline. "And you have forgotten the exhortation which speak to you as to sons: My son, do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him; for whom the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives. If you endure chastening, God deals with you as with sons" Hebrews 12:5-7.

When we read the parable of the prodigal son in Luke 15, we see and are impressed with the love, patience, and forgiveness of that father. Jesus told that story as an indication of what God was like. So father, in every way, we too should imitate the qualities of God.

Happy Father's Day!

May God's blessings be on you
In everything you do
In your going out and coming in,

And taught me by God's wisdom,
So Dad, today, I will return
The love you've freely given.

FATHER'S DAY

William B. Franklin has penned the following "definition" of a dad:

"If he's wealthy and prominent and you stand in awe of him, call him 'father.' If he sits in his shirt sleeves and suspenders at a ball game and picnic, call him 'Pop.' If he wheels the baby carriage and carries bundles meekly, call him 'Papa' (with the accent on the first syllable). If he belongs to a literary circle and writes cultured papers, call him 'Papa' (with the accent on the last syllable).

"If however, he makes a pal of you when you're good, and is too wise to let you pull the wool over his loving eyes when you are not; if, moreover, you're quite sure no other fellow you know has quite so fine a father, you may call him 'Dad.' "

There is little doubt or dispute that a father has a profound impact on his children. That impact may be for good or for evil. The influence, teaching and modeling of a father has started many a youngster down the path of life destined for greatness or destined for destruction. It is true that children grow up and assume responsibility for their own lives, their own actions and their own destinies. But it is equally true that dads make a tremendous difference in the lives of their children.

As you anticipate Father's Day, consider your father. Think of his positive traits and how he influenced you. Ponder his teaching and life and how it affected you. Be thankful for the ways that your dad helped you on the path of life. Take responsibility for your actions regardless of what your dad taught you.

If you are a father, consider your impact on the life of your children. There is no other person that God has ordained to guide and direct the home but you (Ephesians 6:4). Commit yourself to the awesome responsibility of stewardship for the lives of your children. Pray. Pray for your family. Pray for yourself. After all, God knows a little bit about being a Father.
